CORAVIN BY THE GLASS

Miguel Torres, 'Escaleras de Empedrado', Maule Valley, Chile 2012
(40)

Bodegas Torres presents Escaleras de Empedrado, the first Chilean wine to be grown on terraced slate terrain similar to that which dominates the landscape of Priorat, in Catalonia. When combined with the cool climate of the Empedrado estate, which is due to its location and proximity to the Pacific Ocean, this type of terrain contributes to the marked personality and quality of this wine. This shows plenty of currant character, blueberry compote and tar, as well as savory undertones. Medium-bodied with resolved tannins and a round finish.

100% Pinot Noir

Cabernet Sauvignon, Mayacamas, Mt. Veeder - Napa Valley 2012
(74)

Originally built in 1889, Mayacamas is one of the Napa Valley's oldest wineries. A long road winds up Mount Veeder to the historic stone winery and its estate vineyards, located at elevations between 1,800 and 2,400 feet above sea level. The winery has long been known for making lean, balanced, long-aging wines. Bright, deep and supple, this wine offers juicy red currant and cherry. Savory herb notes of rosemary, star anise and lavender provide complexity, while a familiar nose of pencil lead hints at classic wines of the old world. A particularly silky Mayacamas Cabernet, this wine is quite accessible and delicious in its youth.

Altesino, Brunello di Montalcino, Tuscany, Italy 1999
(75)

Brunello can only be described as "Riserva" if it has aged for six years in the cellar. Only produced during the best years, with a limited number of bottles, Brunello Riserva is destined for truly passionate lovers of wine. This garnet red wine has a clear aroma of humus and a broad, complex and ethereal aroma. It maintains such an austere and fascinating character on the palate, emphasising its structure of great depth and power.
